Dear Parents,

Oxford University Press Chinese Language Program Information Session

This September, we are going to launch the Oxford University Press Chinese Language Program for K2 to P3 students. Wonderfully designed by education experts, the program aims at enhancing the listening, speaking, reading and writing abilities of young learners, thereby giving them a head start in the use of the language for success in school and public exams. Students can choose to learn in Cantonese or Putonghua.

To help you understand the program better, we would like to invite you to attend an information session on Saturday 13 August 2016 from 5:00 to 6:15pm. Miss Kristen Mok from Oxford University Press is going to explain different aspects of the program in detail and answer any questions that you may have.

Please reserve your seat(s) with our reception staff. We look forward to seeing you on 13 August. In the meantime, please grasp the opportunity to sign up for a free Chinese Language assessment for your child.

Yours sincerely,

Clive Chan
Headmaster
