

Live your life

On this planet, everybody is different and unique. We have our own personalities, some are talkative, some are shy, some are obedient and some are creative. As everyone is different, we live in our own ways. Our life depends on ourselves. What will future be like? It's a question which only you can answer.

A human is not a doll. We play with a doll. We name it and create an imaginary life for it. We can control its 'life'. Nevertheless, humans are living creatures. They have self-identities and their own thoughts. Therefore, humans should not be trapped in a cage, of a world that someone planned for them. We are born to be free and live in our own lives.

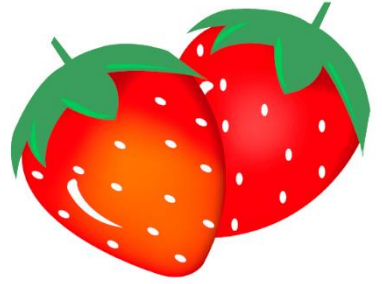

Everybody should have his or her identity. For example, I identify myself as an out-going person. The way you think you are will change your choices in life.

If you do not believe in yourself, who will believe in you? In our entire life, we're seeking for the meaning of life and the real us. The one who knows the best about you is yourself. Therefore, the most important thing in life is to love yourself and find the real 'you'.

A Cooking Competition

Mary and I were in the kitchen in my home and having a cooking competition. My parents were the judges. My favourite dessert is milkshake so I prepared a strawberry milkshake. Mary's favourite food is French fries so she made steak with French fries.

First, I took out the ingredients for what I needed. Next, I cut some strawberries into small pieces and put them into the milkshake flask. Then, I poured in milk, added chocolate topping and a very large scoop of ice-cream and switched on the milkshake mixer. Finally, my milkshake was done!

I looked at what Mary made. Her steak and French fries are overcooked and the floor was messy! "Ring! Ring!" The time was over, it was time to give our food to my parents to taste. Mom and Dad tasted the milkshake and said, "Wow! This milkshake is yummy!" Then they tasted Mary's steak with French fries and said, "Yucky! It's horrible!" Then my brother said "Sister wins this competition!" Every one clapped and cheered for me. "This competition is fun!" I said happily.

My Balloon Aeroplane

When I have my balloon aeroplane, I go to Vigilius Mountain Resort in Lana Italy by my balloon aeroplane. I like going there because I want to go Snorkeling in the beautiful blue water. I go to school by my balloon aeroplane because the house is too far away from the school, So I go there by balloon aeroplane. I've seen many colourful fish in the blue sea. I feel very excited when I have my balloon aeroplane.

If I am rich I will buy some house for my family and buy some computer games. I will buy PS5 and switch because I like games. I will build a school that doesn't have homework and everyday students have PE class. I will eat at KFC and McDonalds because it is my favourite food. I will buy a very big TV for my home because I want my home to be a museum. I will buy many air-conditioned because I like cold. I will buy many of phones, computers and ipads because I want to play games everyday. I want to be a rich boy! But I am not (YEET)

my famous cat

E-Smart Learning Centre

This is a normal cat. It is very cute..and it had a normal life. She has a red and green scarf and a pair of blue shoes. She eats fish every day. She lives with humans, and she can play ^{with} all the children. The children like her very much.
