

Roseanne Park—the 'Australian Wild Rose'

Roseanne Park was one of the successful singers in Korea. She knew how to play the guitar and the piano.

Rosé was born in Auckland. At the age of seven, she began singing. Her dad knew she liked singing very much. Therefore, Rosé went to attend an audition for YG Entertainment, a South Korean company whose music label is well liked. Until now, she still thinks that her father's idea was a joke and said that she didn't think she had chance to become a K-pop star.

Two months later, Rosé had signed with this label as a trainee and moved to South Korea.

Roseanne was a member of BlackPink and debuted at 2016. She and her group members had a great result. After two years, they went to a music festival called 'Coachella.' At that night, the wind drifted with her hair, making her very famous.

In 2021, Rosé debuted a single album and she broke the almost eight-year record! Her song—'On the Ground' became the first song by a female

K-pop solo artist to enter the UK singers chart.

In 2023, Rosé and her member decided not to proceed with a contract with YG Entertainment for individual activities. It is because they only have 3 songs and their company isn't good to them.

Rosé released the song 'APT.' with American singer—Bruno Mars in her album Rosé. The song had a huge success. Until now 20 million sales!

I think Rosé's career is well on her way up. But still, she doesn't have a boyfriend. I hope she can find a boy who can be very kind to her and care a lot about her!

A strand of Hair also can't Move

In a forest, Duck and her friend Goose are arguing with each other who is the champion among the champions. Then, they have a competition of wooden man game. They are not going to move, not even a strand of hair.

Goose: (in a serious voice) 3, 2, 1, start!

Duck: (thinking) Quick! Goose, move now!

Goose: (thinking) Quick! Duck, move now!

Then, many rabbits are coming and jumping over Duck and Goose.

Duck: (thinking) Quick, I need to win, so now Goose move!

Goose: (thinking) Quick, I need to win, move quicky now Duck!

But they don't move not even a strand of hair or else they lose.

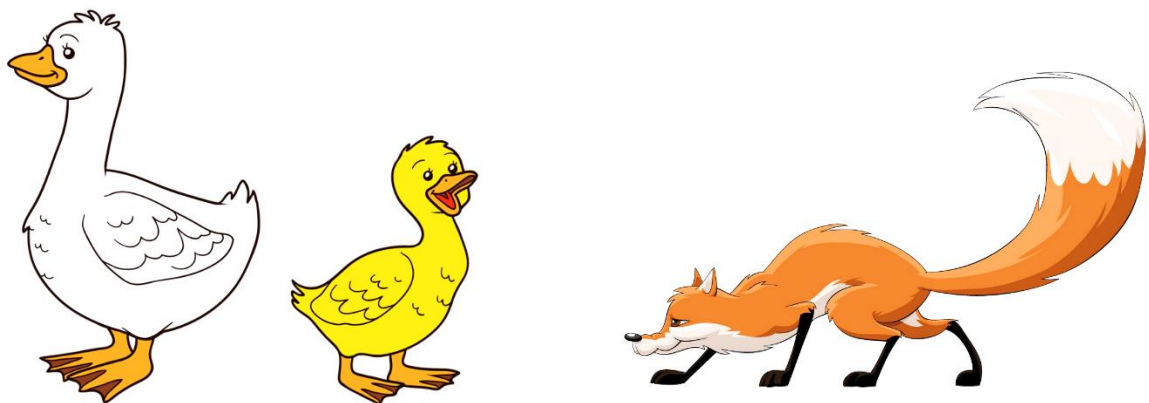

Next, Fox sees Goose and Duck are both standing and not moving.

Fox: (in a sly voice) Yea, today I can have a feast!

Fox takes them into his house and puts hot water into the pot and ready for the Goose to be put in it.

Duck: (thinking) Quick, move now, Goose! Or, how! She can't move?

Fox puts the Goose into the pot and the Goose has become the soup to be drink by the fox.

Fox: (in a sly voice) See, Your end is just like this. Let me tell you a lesson, "There is not the best, only the better!"

A Royal Person.

If I were a Royal person, I would first buy a mansion in Beverly Hills CA, my mansion will have a big swimming pool with slides, a big kitchen for my family to eat. I would also include nine bedrooms for my family of nine because I have a big family. I'm also going to put in a gym to keep us fit.

As for our daily life, In the morning, I wake up at 7:30am and go to my personal gym and start training till 8:30am, then I have my breakfast with my family until 10:00am. From 10am, I swim in my pool for 2 hours.

In the afternoon, I eat my lunch that my personal chef prepared for me consist of beef wellington and lobster. Then, I play with my brothers for 2 hours and I go to an expensive store like "Gucci", "Chanel" or "Hugoboss" to buy some items and walk around the mall till nighttime.

At night, I eat my dinner go to bed.

I enjoy about being a royal person as my life is less busy and I have more free time. Also, I don't need to wait for the bus for so long. I can just ride in my own limo.

This is the description of my royal life.
