

A horrible camp

On a Friday morning, I went camping with my classmate and teachers. It was a school activity and I would go back home after two days of camping. We had different activities to do during the camp.

At night, we had a campfire party together. We played games and ate a lot of snacks. When we were playing games, Bob suddenly screamed, "Oh no! A spaceship!" We all thought he was crazy. The teacher told him to calm down. After one minute, a scream was heard and a beam of light travelled the sky.

"Ah!" We were very frightened. There really was a spaceship in the sky! We ran away quickly and the teachers told us to hide inside the tents. But the spaceship had bright lights. When the lights were on, some aliens came out! They took a gun and shot at the teachers and classmates. Suddenly, the teachers and my classmates turned into stones!

Then, an alien came to me. "I don't want to kill you." He said. "Can you be my friend?" I was so scared and I ran away. "Please." He said. "So how about my classmates?" I asked. "I would tell my father to stop it. He is the leader of all the aliens." He replied. So, I became his friend now. Then, he threw a thing to me and said, "You could chat with me with this thing after all. I need to go now. Goodbye." He thanked me and went back to the spaceship. I saw the spaceship go away and the thing that I got was shining. On it, I saw the alien waving to me and I saw his name, Gary.

Suddenly, the statues of my teachers and classmates were missing and everything turned back to normal. "Tom, let's play games. Don't go away!" The teacher shouted. The thing was still in my hand. This was a secret, a secret between me and Gary.

The Best Christmas

I had my best Christmas when I was twelve. At that age, my parents were busy with their jobs. Even on weekends, I saw them seldom. However, on that Christmas I thought they would be at home and I decided to find friends to play with but most of them had to celebrate Christmas with their families. Few of them could come out and played until six o'clock. They had to go home for dinner with their families. I had nothing to do and so I came back home.

When I came back home, I saw that my parents were there and even some of my relatives. My parents focused on decorating the Christmas tree. My aunt prepared the Christmas meal. They were surprised that I came back so early, I was surprised that they were at home. Then I knew my parents didn't need to work that day.

At seven o'clock, we began to have our Christmas meal. Then I cried. I was so glad that many people came and celebrated Christmas with me. That was the best Christmas I ever had before.

One day, Princess and Oink went to the cinema separately. Oink was too bored at the movie so he left. Princess and Oink ran into each other but Oink didn't know it was Princess because the genius bought her a lot of makeup like a real princess. She called herself Princess Pig.
